The Ministry for Heavy Industry is now in the process of moving from its present location in the former Air Force Ministry, Leipziger Strasse 5-7, to the office buildings in Karlshorst which had been previously occupied by the Soviets. Other ministries and agencies now located in the same building are also scheduled to move to Karlshorst. The installation is to completely vacated by 1 December 1954. According to rumors, the building is to be taken over by a "large central agency."

Comment: The above information tends to substantiate an earlier report which stated that the former Air Force Ministry building would be occupied by the "Defense Ministry."
